

Mission Statement

Mrs. Green's World is a global education platform that produces tangible solutions to inspire action. We strive to raise awareness about climate reality, sustainability, innovation and mindful living through our podcasts, media, public speaking, and events. We engage our community by discussing real issues and leveraging experts and science to get trustworthy information.

Vision

Our vision is to be the most trusted educational platform addressing the world's environmental crisis.